If I should accept any scholarship offer from the School of Creative and Performing Arts at Northwestern State University of Louisiana, I understand that there will be a mutual commitment on the part of myself and Northwestern State University of Louisiana. Therefore, I agree that after May 1 of the calendar year of my matriculation into an undergraduate-level program or after April 15 of the calendar year of my matriculation into a graduate-level program, I will not consider any other offer of financial aid from an institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Music or any other institutions for the purpose of enrolling in a music major program beginning with the Fall Semester of the academic year listed above, except with the expressed written consent of the Director of the School of Creative and Performing Arts at Northwestern State University of Louisiana.

I also agree that it is my responsibility to fully disclose if I have been offered, previously received, or am currently receiving any performance based financial aid or scholarships at another institution. I also understand that failure to disclose such information will result in the immediate forfeiture of any scholarship offered through the School of Creative and Performing Arts at Northwestern State University of Louisiana until proper written release by the music executive (as defined by the National Association of School of Music) from my previous institution has been obtained by the Director of the School of Creative and Performing Arts at Northwestern State University of Louisiana.
