Financial Aid Application Deadline

The financial aid deadline is April 5, 2022 by 11:59 PM. Both the completed Student Application (with academic documents) and completed Financial Aid Application (with financial documents) must be received by the April 5th deadline. Late financial aid and student applications will not be considered.

Frequently Asked Questions

May I complete and submit the Financial Aid Application online?

No, but you may complete the fillable PDF of the Financial Aid Application on your computer. Then mail or scan and email it and all required financial documents to the ADVANCE office. Please write legibly if you choose to complete the Financial Aid Application by hand.

Do I need to submit the $50 nonrefundable application fee with the Financial Aid Application?

No. The $50 application fee is paid with the student application. You do not pay another $50 application fee with the Financial Aid Application.

What happens if my Financial Aid Application is incomplete?

Incomplete applications will not be processed. Students must submit a student application with academic documentation and the nonrefundable application fee and a financial aid application with all supporting financial documentation to be considered for financial aid.

When will I find out if I will receive financial aid?

The parent/guardian of the financial aid applicant will be notified of the financial aid award, if any, by phone and/or email within three business days of the financial aid application deadline.

How much can I expect to receive?

All financial aid applicants are considered at one time to determine which students have the most financial need. Depending on the number of financial aid applicants and program funds, our financial aid awards range from 15 to 50 percent of program fees.

Do I pay the nonrefundable $400 enrollment deposit before learning about my child's financial aid offer?

No. After we notify you of the financial aid offer, you have five days to decide if you can afford the tuition balance. If the applicant will attend the program, the nonrefundable $400 enrollment deposit is due within five days of accepting the financial aid offer.

What happens if I don't file taxes?

If a family is not required to file a tax return because their income level falls below the IRS filing threshold, they must complete the Financial Aid Application, note on the application that they are not required to file a federal tax return, and submit copies of whatever documentation they have for any income that they do receive, such as an annual Social Security award amount letter, SSN-1099, unemployment or disability income award letters, or public assistance qualification notification letters.

What if I have not filed my 2021 tax forms yet?

Go to page 2 of the Financial Aid Application and carefully read "Required Financial Documentation."

What if I own a business and my receipts and taxes have not been completed at this time?

Submit your 2020 profit-and-loss statement for your business and an estimated profit-and-loss statement for 2021.

I filed my taxes electronically; therefore my 1040 will not be signed. Is this acceptable?

Yes. Print a copy of the your 1040. Submit it and the required financial documents with the Financial Aid Application.

Do I need to report the income of my significant other if they live with us, even if we are not married?

Yes. You must provide the incomes of all people living in the student's main household, whether they are related or not.

Note: If separate tax forms have been filed for married parents living in the same household, separated parents, or stepparents, both parents must submit tax forms. Divorced parents may submit tax forms for the custodial parent only.
