I believe students and facilitators were well-prepared with background information about each other and the environment in which the experience would take place.

I believe the experience provided a "real time" experience and that adequate feedback related to the learning intentions was provided during the process.

I believe adequate assessment and evaluation tools were utilized ruling the experience to allow for reflection on the specific learning goals and objectives.

I believe adequate reporting of shared impressions occurred during the experience.
