REGISTRATION WITH A PREVIOUS BALANCE

A student who owes a balance from a previous semester and who, because of extenuating circumstances that can be documented, is unable to pay the balance in full, may appeal. In addition to the appeal, the appellant must demonstrate an ability to pay and pay previous balances by the 14th class day of the semester. If an appeal to register with a previous balance is approved, current semester financial aid will not be disbursed until the previous semester's balance is paid in full. The appellant will be resigned from classes should he/she fail to pay the previous balance by the 14th class day of the semester. Installment, late registration, and late payment charges will be applied in accordance with policy.

Course Load/Maximum Hours of Enrollment in a Summer Semester

The maximum amount of course work for which an undergraduate student may register in a summer session is twelve semester hours. An undergraduate student is considered full-time when enrolling in at least six hours of credit for the summer. Any exception to the maximum load limits requires prior approval of the student's academic dean.

1. An undergraduate student may take six hours in the 1st 4-week, and six hours in the 2nd 4-week for a total of 12 hours.
2. An undergraduate student may take up to 12 hours in the eight-week session.
3. An undergraduate student may take 12 hours in the 12-week session. Note: The 12-week session is for Clinical Nursing/Radiologic Science Students only.

Resignation from the University

At some time, it may be necessary for a student to leave school. If this should occur, the student should not leave without completing an official resignation that will protect his or her academic standing. Please note carefully:

- 1. Students who drop all courses in which they are registered must officially resign from the University.
- 2. Students must initiate the resignation process in the office of their academic dean by completing a resignation/cancellation form or log on at <https://www.nsula.edu/documentprovider/docs/2/Resignation%20Cancellation%20Form.pdf>.
- 3. A student may resign from the institution with grades of “W” prior to a date specified in the official University academic calendar.
- 4. Students who leave the University without completing an official resignation may have grades of “F” or “WN” recorded in all courses in which they are registered and will be charged all fees associated with their registration.
- 5. Students unable to come to campus and without INTERNET access may fax a letter of resignation to the University Registrar’s Office at (318) 357-5823.
- 6. Students who do not officially resign from the University and receive financial assistance will receive an Unofficial Resignation and aid will be adjusted based on the last date of attendance. These students’ last day of attendance will be verified for all classes of enrollment through the instructor.
