Spring Exercises for the 2022 Commencement of Northwestern State University of Louisiana

Wednesday, May 11, 2022, and Thursday, May 12, 2022 Prather Coliseum Natchitoches, Louisiana

TO OUR GUESTS

The faculty and staff of Northwestern State University welcome you to the one hundred thirty-seventh spring commencement exercises. This is a happy occasion, but yet a dignified occasion. It is a time of recognition of the graduates' years of study and is important and meaningful to the graduates and their families, staff, and students of Northwestern State University. Guests and participants are requested to maintain a proper decorum during the ceremony by avoiding unnecessary movement about the seating area and by withholding applause until the entire class has been graduated. We heartily welcome you to the commencement exercises of Northwestern State University.

Message from the President

It is my honor to congratulate this spring's graduating class on behalf of the university's faculty, staff, students, and alumni and to welcome your families, friends, and other guests to these commencement ceremonies.

Graduation programs are the most significant events at every university in the world. They validate the academic credentials of the graduates and signify that they have acquired extensive expertise and proficiency in their respective fields of study.

As we come together to celebrate your achievements, we also express appreciation to those who assisted and supported you in reaching this milestone. Parents, spouses, friends, and others who provided encouragement and inspiration share this special moment with you.

We commend you for your perseverance. You have earned the distinct honor of graduating from the university during a time of unprecedented challenges here and across the world.

It is also appropriate to applaud the professors, counselors, coaches and other faculty and staff who provided guidance on your journey toward graduation amidst such difficult circumstances.

You join today more than 80,000 Northwestern alumni who have enhanced the university's prestige for 138 years through their contributions to every segment of society.

We are honored that you will forever be a part of the fabric of this historic university and its rich, meaningful traditions. Best wishes for the future, and please stay in touch with your Alma Mater.

Sincerely,

Dr. Marcus D. Jones

President

Lela Mae Wilkes

As Owner and Chief Executive Officer at Brown Eagle, Lela Mae Wilkes oversees one of the largest supply chain solution companies in the South. After joining the company in 1977 as Controller, she was promoted to President in 1989 and served in that position until 2014. Ms. Wilkes acquired 100% ownership of Brown Eagle in 2014, making it one of the largest woman-owned businesses in the Louisiana Capital region. Today, Brown Eagle provides site logistics services and operations for chemical and lubricant manufacturers as well as warehousing and distribution services for international beverage companies, including numerous Fortune 500 brands.

Ms. Wilkes' path to success began in the 1960s on her parents' dairy farm. Situated on nearly 650 acres of farmland in Pride, Louisiana, VW Lea's Dairy Farm was fertile ground for the future business owner to learn many important life lessons. One example involved plowing. "When you plow, you can't look back or to the side; otherwise, the row will be crooked, and you'll have to start over," said Ms. Wilkes. "You have to always look forward. This is true in the fields and in life."

Ms. Wilkes earned her business degree in 1968 from Northwestern State University and was a member of the Purple Jackets, Associated Women Students, Pi Omega Pi Business Honor Society, and Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority. She then went on to earn an accounting degree and established herself as a pioneer in the petrochemical service industry from her first days as an accountant at Ethyl Corporation. She became a founding member of the Louisiana Chemical Industry Alliance and was the first woman to serve on its board of directors.

As an alumna and long-time supporter of Northwestern, Ms. Wilkes was recognized as a Distinguished Graduate of the School of Business and inducted into the NSU Alumni Hall of Distinction, the Long Purple Line, in 2004. She has served on the NSU Foundation Board of Directors since 2018 and on the NSU Business School Advisory Board for the ten years prior. The Lea Family Endowed Professorship in Industrial Engineering Technology at NSU is named in her honor.

Outside of industry, Ms. Wilkes is a leader in the Baton Rouge community, supporting organizations including the Rotary Club of Baton Rouge, Baton Rouge Children's Advocacy Center, Volunteers in Public Schools, the Louisiana State Museum, and many others. In 2004, she was recognized by the Baton Rouge Business Report as one of the Capital Region's Influential Women in Business.

Ms. Wilkes is humbled and greatly appreciative of this honor. She thanks Dr. Marcus Jones, Dr. Chris Maggio, the Northwestern State University Board of Directors, Jill Bankston, and her professors and supporters at NSU for this honor.

Keep on plowing til the end of the row!

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Together, we acknowledge that the NSU campuses are located on the traditional and contemporary lands of Indigenous nations, including Caddo, Tunica, Biloxi, Ofo, Chahta, Adaes, Apalachee, Apache, Chatot, Pascagoula, Chitimacha, Coushatta, Alabama, and other Indigenous nations, including Native refugees from other nations. Indigenous nations care for and are cared for by the land. The relationships between the original peoples and their lands remain of great historical, spiritual, cultural, and personal importance. We recognize the sovereignty of modern Indigenous nations, and through this land acknowledgment we affirm our commitment to supporting tribal self-determination through education. We give our gratitude to the elders, past and present, who have cared for these lands and join in their commitment to the lands' stewardship. We thank the Tunica-Biloxi Tribe, which hosts our Marksville campus on their tribal land.

STUDENT USHERS

The students leading the candidates into the auditorium represent the Northwestern State University student organizations of Blue Key National Honor Fraternity and Purple Jackets Club. Both organizations are honorary service groups that are highly selective in nature and provide service to the University in many ways throughout the year. Purple Jackets was originated in 1927; Blue Key was begun at Northwestern State University in 1959. It is a Northwestern tradition for a representative of each of these two organizations to lead each file into the commencement ceremony.

GONFALONS

The gonfalon, a flag that hangs from a crosspiece or frame, originated in the medieval republics of Italy as an ensign of state of office. Gonfalons have been adopted in many universities around the world as college or institutional insignias.

The gonfalons displayed represent the academic areas of Northwestern State University. The colors of the University, purple and white, are joined together in a pattern common to all flags. The top portion is the designated color for each academic area.

PHI KAPPA PHI

The national Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi was the first to recognize superior scholarship in all fields of study and to take into membership the highest-ranking students from all branches of learning. Since chapters elect no more than the upper ten percent of a graduating class, membership is a distinction unequaled by any other scholarly group. Faculty and students who are members wear the medallion of the Society. Members from this graduating class are:

Learning for Life

Career | Graduate School | Professional School

As of 2020, all of Northwestern State University's baccalaureate programs have implemented Learning for Life, the University's Quality Enhancement Plan. Learning for Life is dedicated to ensuring all baccalaureate programs conclude with meaningful capstone experiences that prepare graduates for careers and graduate study. Congratulations to all of Northwestern's graduates who took part in Learning for Life this semester.

THE PRESIDENT'S CHAIN, REGALIA, and the MACE

The President's Chain holds the seal of the University, which is cast in bronze. Around the black satin ribbon holding the seal are 18 engraved platelets of bronze. Each platelet bears the name of a former president of Northwestern and the years he served. Chains of similar design have been worn for centuries during ceremonies at universities. This chain is unique in recognizing the leaders who have served Northwestern while most others are original works of art.

The President's Chain was presented to the University by The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi to commemorate the University's commitment to academic excellence for 125 years.

The President's Regalia was designed by the Student Government Association on behalf of the student body and symbolizes the mutual trust, respect, and collaboration between the students and the University administration.

Academic regalia dates back to the Medieval universities of Europe and is based on clerical robes worn at that time. The President's Regalia is comprised of a purple robe and hood with velvet panels and bars with white piping in the University's colors. The front panels are emblazoned with the seal of the University, and the four bars on the sleeves are exclusive to the regalia of the President.

The Mace is crafted from dark walnut and silver-plated solid bronze. It bears the seal of the University and features details of oak and pine. The Mace is topped by a silver fleur-de-lis finial, symbolizing the French heritage of the area and is encircled by the original Latin motto of the school, "Educatio Adulescentis Est Civitiatis Salus (The Education of the Youth is the Salvation of the State)."

The Mace originated as a weapon in the Middle Ages. Archers and other unmounted warriors used it as a hand arm. Sergeants at arms, who were guards of kings and other high officials, also carried maces. Gradually the mace gained a ceremonial character and became a symbol to denote authority.

The commencement ceremonial occasions begin with the entrance of the University Mace, carried by the Mace Bearer, President of the University's Faculty Senate. The ceremonial Mace symbolizes the dignity and authority of the University.

Mace Bearer

Dr. John T. Dunn

COMMENCEMENT COMMENTARY

The practice of wearing academic attire extends back to Medieval times and the Renaissance when teachers and students in European universities wore caps, gowns, and hoods. The long sleeves of the gowns and the deep hoods were used to carry books and refreshments. Each European university developed its own style of dress and strict rules for its design. In the United States, most institutions have agreed on a uniform design and color code.

Although the wearing of academic regalia in this country is now limited to formal occasions, the attire may be considered the mark of the professional scholar and teacher. The style and color serve as symbols of academic achievement.

Holders of the associate, bachelor's, master's, and specialist's degrees wear purple gowns; the pattern and trimming differ for each degree. Originally, the bachelor's gowns were made of serge or worsted and the master's gowns were made of serge, worsted, or silk; but now synthetic fabrics are also used. The master's and specialist's gowns are distinguished by their long pointed sleeves with a slit for the arm at either the elbow or wrist.

The doctor's gown is made of silk and may be in a color other than black. It has rounded, open sleeves, and the trimming includes velvet facing down the front and three bars of velvet on the sleeves. The velvet may be black or the color appropriate to the faculty or subject to which the degree pertains.

Holders of all degrees wear caps, popularly known as mortarboards, to which a long tassel, the color of which indicates the academic discipline of the degree, is fastened and hangs over the left side of the cap. Doctors and presidents of institutions may wear tassels of gold thread.

At Northwestern State University, students earning bachelor's, master's and specialist's degrees wear purple and white tassels and students earning associate degrees wear purple tassels. The hoods of the candidates for advanced Northwestern State University degrees are lined with the colors of the University, purple and white. The colors of the edging of hoods are representative of the degree:

Arts, Letters, and Humanities	White
Business	Drab
Education	Baby Blue
Music	Pink
Nursing	Apricot
Science	Golden Yellow

Commencement is the most important event of the academic year on a university campus. On that occasion, the faculty traditionally recognizes the graduating class by marching in procession attired in the regalia appropriate to their degrees and the institutions where they were earned. Position in the faculty columns is determined by academic rank; persons of higher rank process first.

The column is led by two marshals wearing regalia in the colors of Northwestern State University. The marshals are chosen by their faculty colleagues on the basis of distinguished service and achievement.

This publication is subject to change and does not constitute a contract or an offer to contract between NSU and any other party. Every effort is made to make this printed program accurate with respect to degrees awarded and honors conferred. The official Northwestern State University transcript, sealed, and signed by the University Registrar, is documented evidence of the student's permanent record and the student's possession of degree(s) awarded by the university.

Alma Mater

Oh, Alma Mater here today, We for thy lasting blessings pray, We know not where our paths may go, But, thou'll uphold us still we know, Unchanging thou, 'mid changes vast, Unswerved from ideas of the past, Steadfast and true, our watchword e'er shall be— To thee, our Alma Mater, Loyalty!
