

Maggie Welch MA, NCC, LPC

Friedman Student Union | 318-357-5621 | welchm@nsula.edu

Professional Summary

Non-profit community based counseling and community outreach: behavioral health, community education, school based risk assessment, substance abuse prevention, sexual assault prevention, individual and group counseling; Directed staff in proper clinical record keeping

Higher education: College counseling; individual, group, couple and career; crisis intervention; Facilitate student-run outreach organizations and programming; Train and assign tasks to graduate assistants in counseling outreach; Grant writing and grant program management; Serve on counseling crisis team; Provide a rotating on-call (24 hour) crisis assistance; College teaching in University Studies

Education

Licensed Professional Counselor # 5098, 2014

National Certified Counselor (NCC) Certificate #285285, 2011

Master of Arts in Student Personnel Services (CACREP accredited Counseling Program),
Northwestern State University of Louisiana, 2011

Bachelor of Science in Psychology, Northwestern State University of Louisiana 2009

Experience

Counselor / Instructor, Northwestern State University, 2014-2017

- Individual, couples, marriage, family, group and crisis counseling
- Instruct University Studies 1000
- Facilitate student-run outreach organizations and programming (SWAT)

Counselor / Behavioral Health / Community Education, Project Celebration, 2013 – 2014

- School based Risk Assessment, Substance Abuse Prevention and Sexual Assault
- Psycho-educational group counseling
- Community outreach

Care Supervisor, Louisiana Choices Inc., 2012 – 2013

- Manage caseload within financial parameters
- Direct staff in proper clinical record keeping, service authorizing and writing “plans of care”
- Applied strength-based supervision

Clinical Therapist, Cane River Children’s Services, 2011 – 2012

- Individual, Group and Family counseling
- Monitor baseline measurements
- Liaison with social service agencies, judicial system and contracting agencies

Counseling Intern, NSU Counseling and Career Services, 2010 – May

- Psychological Assessments
- Individual and Group mental health counseling under a licensed supervisor
- Academic and Career Counseling

Accomplishments/Honors

Louisiana Counseling Association (LCA), National Counseling Conference Volunteer, 2010

Presented at local, state, and international conferences

- Indianapolis, IN, 2012
- Many, LA 2014