

Traci LaBom-Norris, MA, LPCI, DCC

Friedman Student Union | 318-357-5621 | labomt@nsula.edu

Professional Summary

14 years of Management Experience; Train teams ranging 3-500 employees; Supervise and mentor Graduate Assistants/Interns/ Student Workers; Manage Northwestern State University's Career Center Programs; Advise students with career, educational, and vocational guidance; counsel and advise students/clients with mental health challenges; utilize general college entrance instruments, career exploration & decision making inventories; Market, facilitates, and pool external business & university departments and instructors; Conducts: seminars, presentations, and workshops on professional development topics; Coordinate: University, local, and regional career fairs; and support: LA State High School Literary Rally; Engage in college-level counseling; individual, group, and crisis intervention; Administrative testing experience: Allied Health sector and Collegiate setting; Process assessments and inventories for clients; Instruct: Professional Development, Career Development, and Freshman Orientations; Maintain compliance with federal, state, university, and office regulations.

Education

MASTER OF ARTS | DECEMBER 2002 | NORTHWESTERN STATE UNIVERSITY

- Major: Counseling; Student Personnel Services

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE | DECEMBER 1999 | NORTHWESTERN STATE UNIVERSITY

- Major: Psychology

Experience

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR | NSU COUNSELING AND CAREER SERVICES | JANUARY 2003 - PRESENT

- Career Exploration, Advising, and Career Coaching

INSTRUCTOR | NORTHWESTERN STATE UNIVERSITY | JANUARY 2003 - PRESENT

- Student Personnel Services 4000; Student Affairs in Higher Education 4000; Professional Development
- Educational & Vocational Guidance, Career Development
- University Studies, University Experience, Orientation to College